While I'm not big on tribute discs, this one has really grabbed my attention. "A Tribute to Spacemen 3" features some wonderful tracks like Mogwai's pretty version of "Honey", Bardo Pond's heavy sonic "Call the Doctor", along with Low's haunting "Lord Can You Hear Me Call?" and Bowery Electric's "Things'll Never Be the Same". My only real beef with this is that there's too many songs from S3's "Playing with Fire" and nothing from other great albums like "Recurring", leaving me wonder how much Spacemen 3 these bands really listen to.
